HARRY CENDROWSKI JOINS THE SCHILLER DUCANTO & FLECK FAMILY LAW CENTER ADVISORY BOARD

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Giving the gift of a brighter future to children and families in need is a passion for Chicago business executive and author Harry Cendrowski of Cendrowski Corporate Advisors (www.cca-advisors.com). His new position as an advisory board member of the Schiller DuCanto & Fleck Family Law Center at DePaul University's College of Law is the latest in a long list of community leadership roles.

"Investing in better opportunities for the next generation through education and family services is a central mission for me and our companies," said Cendrowski. "Funding cuts make it imperative that business leaders and other professionals step forward to assist civic and charitable organizations in serving the disadvantaged and our youth."

Mr. Cendrowski's work with the Schiller DuCanto & Fleck Family Law Center underscores his commitment to assisting abused and neglected children, battered women, and those with terminal illnesses. He is an active trustee for LaRabida Children's Hospital, an organization dedicated to assisting children battling chronic illnesses and diseases, and is a founding trustee of the Michigan Cancer Research Fund. He previously served on the Board of Directors of Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit.

Mr. Cendrowski also supports numerous educational organizations. He leads a $50 million capital campaign for the Madonna University Foundation in Michigan and serves as Vice Chair of the Madonna University Board of Trustees. He previously served on the Alma College Board of Trustees. In 2010, the Association of Fundraising Professionals recognized Mr. Cendrowski for his service to the educational community.

Blending his skills as a forensic accountant with an action-oriented approach to delivering results, Mr. Cendrowski has built three businesses in the past 27 years: the financial consulting and litigation support firm of Cendrowski Corporate Advisors (www.cca-advisors.com); tax and accounting firm Cendrowski Selecky PC (www.cendsel.com); and the independent multi-client family office firm of Prosperitas Group (www.prosperitasgroup.com).
